

REVIEW- SENDING OUT AT LUNCH TODAY

January 2021 Newsletter

Welcome!

---

Welcome Marsha Tomlin as the new Communications Chair. Marsha is not a stranger to the Executive team, having served as Membership Chair for the past 6 months.

Marsha is a Sr. Engineering Process Writer in Engineering Process Management at Gulfstream. Upon relocating from Houston in 2017, she quickly connected with SCE SWE and volunteered for GEID and various outreaches. Throughout her multifaceted career, she volunteered and mentored for STEM. Marsha also enjoys reading books (professional development, business, technology, and memoirs), listening to podcasts, traveling (fingers crossed), and sight-seeing. As Communications Chair, she plans to implement social media / email marketing strategies learned thru product marketing and continuing education.

SWE Executive Council Member Needed

SWE is looking for a Membership Chair (self-nominated position)! Details about the roles can be found here: <https://www.scswe.org/ec.html>

If interested, email scswe@gmail.com! This is a great way to learn leadership skills and help the community without a huge commitment!

Professional Development: Inspiring the Future of STEM

"This Girl Can" Support: Golden Isles College & Career Academy to engage young women in exploring careers in the areas of manufacturing and engineering. Kicking off in January, local girls are invited to take part in a free workshop series called "This Girl Can." The free workshops are designed to be engaging and educational, while exposing girls to the many career opportunities available in our region. Local SWE members will speak with students on January 21, 6:00 pm- 8:00 pm about engineering, and specifically manufacture engineering.

Pulse 2021 STEM Week at Telfair Museum

SWE will be hosting two virtual STEM activity events for students on Jan 30 @ 9:30 and 11am, limited to 20 students, and FREE. We hope that students will attend throughout the whole week, as there are many events happening throughout Jan 27 – 31.
